To Graduating Seniors and College Graduates from Loogootee Methodist Church,

We congratulate you as graduates from your high schools and college in the Class of 2026! You have accomplished much in your time of learning over the past years. As your church family, we have enjoyed being part of your faith journey during this time.

On Sunday, May 17, 2026, in our 10:45 AM worship service we would like to honor all of our graduates. We invite you to be part of this special service by participating in the following ways:

- Set up a Graduate display in our fellowship hall for the Sunday School/Fellowship time which begins at 9:15 AM until our 10:15 AM service time. There will be a reception during this time.
- Be present with any family members that you would like to invite to our worship service. We will ask you to come forward, be recognized and receive a gift from the Church.
- Turn in approximately 20 photos which will be scanned or turn in your photos on a flash drive or CD, of your life from birth to now marking special occasions. Please inform us of the High School/College you attended. All college Graduates please inform us on the degree you received. These will be made into a power-point presentation. Please turn in your photos by Sunday, May 1st.
- If you have made a decision of future plans, please let us know.
- Wearing of cap and gown for the worship service is optional and will be left up to you.

We do hope you participate in this special service, and will let us know by Friday, May 1st, of your plans.

In Christ,
Jean Survance, Education Chairman

PPR UPDATE

On behalf of the PPR committee, we would like to give you an update on the process of appointing our new Pastor for Loogootee Methodist Church.

On Feb 7 th , the PPR committee met with our Presiding Elder to submit our church priorities in pastoral leadership. A future meeting will be set up by our Presiding Elder for the PPR to meet a prospective pastor.

As an ordained Deacon, Pastor Chris will be appointed to a church that aligns with his gifts and experience. He will remain our Associate Pastor until then. We feel that God has called him to this ministry and will continue to keep him and his family in prayer.
